

HOPE life journal

What's that?.....On the road again and you forgot your HOPE journal? Sorry dude - we can't help with your notes but we can give you the Bible reading plan so you can keep up with the rest of the gang.

What? No problem man, anything we can do to hook you up. Word out - brah!

how do I do devotions?

Set apart a least 20 minutes per day for devotions. That's about 2 minutes for every hour you spend running around during the day. I like to spend time in the morning and a few more at night. I use Spurgeon's Morning and Evening . This online version is for all you King James devotees (ha, I used our word in another sentence).

Take time to Reflect - be quiet, think about what you have read. Some people enjoy writing in a Journal.

Take time to Respond - make a decision about the material you have studied. You might want to share it with someone.

Take time to Pray - Thank God for what He has shown you. Ask His forgiveness for anything that might have come to light while you were praying. And finally walk away in His grace and mercy.

Here is a great daily reading plan for you to use . . .
